

Presentation Topics

Asia in International Relations

| Date | Presentations | Student |
|-------|--|---------------------|
| 21.2. | 1. Turkey under President Erdogan | |
| | 2. Position of women in the Middle East | |
| 28.2. | 3. Jerusalem in Israeli-Palestinian conflict | |
| | 4. USA and the Israeli-Palestinian conflict | |
| 7.3. | 5. Civil war in Yemen/Syria | Tereza Corradi |
| | 6. Irani nuclear program | |
| | 7. Current situation in Afghanistan | Clara Leveque |
| 14.3. | 8. Russia and Central Asia | Svetlana Dushkina |
| | 9. China and Central Asia | |
| 21.3. | 10. India under Prime Minister Modi | |
| | 11. China-Indian relations | |
| | 12. Terrorism and security problems in Southeast Asia | Shahzad Aryobee |
| 28.3. | 13. Belt and Road Initiative | Natálie Škrabánková |
| | 14. One China policy | Jakub Ondráček |
| | 15. One Child policy and its impacts on China | Jakub Pospíšil |
| 4.4. | 16. Japan-Chinese relations | Tomáš Sedláček |
| | 17. South China sea dispute | Runar Haraldsson |
| 11.4. | 18. North Korean nuclear program | Richard Zemánek |
| | 19. Inter-Korean Peninsula relations | Alexandra Petre |
| | 20. Singapur in IR | |
| | 21. Islam in Indonesia | Adam Petr (?) |
| 18.4. | No classes | |
| 25.4. | 22. Relation of selected great power to Asia (case study) | |
| | 23. Asian great powers: sources of power, main obstacles of development (case study) | |

Update as of 7 March 2022

Pay attention to change of some presentation days (scheduled to have at most three presentations per seminar, ideally two)