

4th April 2023

MUSIC

Do you like music? Singing? Dancing?

When do you listen do it?

Do you have a favorite song/ band?

Do you play any musical instrument?

1. What is music to you?
  2. Define "good" music.
  3. What music do you listen to when you're stressed/angry/happy/sad?
  4. Are you a musician? Can you sing?
  5. What's more important to you, a good melody or good lyrics?
-
1. There's no point denying it or putting it off: it's time to face the music and admit you did it.
  2. I don't want to blow my own trumpet but I think I dealt with that situation rather well.
  3. For our honeymoon we went on a whistle stop tour of 5 European capital cities.
  4. Paul is like a broken record, he's always banging on about vegan food.
  5. Change the record Janet, we've heard it all before!
  6. The lyrics in the second verse really struck a chord with me when I was a teenager.
  7. She's the one who calls the tune/shots in that office.
  8. My granddad is amazing, 90 years old and still fit as a fiddle.
  9. When they told me the school would have to close early it was music to my ears.
  10. I'm fed up of playing second fiddle to that moron, he messes everything up.
  11. The article's ok, a bit boring though, why don't you jazz it up with some raunchy photos?
  12. My students are the worst, I've been drumming it into their heads that they have exams today but they still all looked surprised when I told them.

-
- |  |   |
|--|---|
| a. To be in perfect health                               |   |
| b. To teach someone something repeatedly                 |   |
| c. To boast/praise yourself                              |   |
| d. Make something more colourful/interesting             |   |
| e. To make the decisions                                 |   |
| f. Someone who keeps saying the same thing over and over |   |
| g. Exactly what one wants to hear                        |   |
|  | h. Accept the negative consequences of your actions       |
|  | i. Constantly talking about something                     |
|  | j. To be moved/remind of something when hearing something |
|  | k. Visit the key things in places very quickly            |
|  | l. Talk about something else, we've heard this before     |
|  | m. Take a subordinate role to someone else                |

---

Discussion:

1. Who do you have to play second fiddle to?
2. What is music to your ears?
3. Who calls the tune/shots in your house/workplace/relationship?
4. How can you be sure that you're fit as a fiddle when you reach old age?
5. How do you jazz up your meals?
6. Did any particular songs/books/poems strike a chord with you when you were growing up?
7. Are you like a broken record? If so, what are you always banging on about?
8. What's the best way to face the music?
9. Are you known to blow your own trumpet?
10. What's the best way to drum something into someone's head?