Shop lifting

Sales vs discount

December 26 (or Boxing Day) is traditionally the start of the winter sales in the UK, when items are heavily discounted. In fact, bargain hunters can find some items reduced up to 50% off their pre-sale price.

An unbeatable offer / prices slashed (= cut) or give-away prices mean very low prices.

Clearance Sale / Everything must go! = signs in shop windows advertising the sales snap up a bargain = to buy something cheaply waste, spend money on...

Asking for things in shops

“Do you have any...?”

“I’m looking for...”

“I wonder if you could help me...?”

What the shopkeeper says

“I’m sorry, we’re out of stock.”
“I’m sorry, that’s the last one.”
“I’m sorry, that’s all we have left.”

What a sales person says

“Can I help you?”
“Are you looking for anything in particular?”

Your reply

“I’m just looking, thank you.”
“I’m just browsing, thank you.”

Asking about things in shops

“Do you have this in another size?”
“Do you have this in another colour?”
“Is this made of leather / silk / plastic / cotton / ...?”
“Does this come with a guarantee?”
“Is this fully refundable?”
“Can I bring this back if it’s not the right size?”
“Can I bring this back if it doesn’t fit?”

Paying – what the shopkeeper says

“Do you have anything smaller?” (If you pay with a large denomination note.)

Paying – what you say

“I’m sorry, I don’t have any small change.”
“I don’t have anything smaller.”
“Would you have change for this?”
“Can I have the receipt, please?”
“Can I pay by credit card?”
“Can I pay in cash?”
“Is this on sale?”
