During his holidays James visited some friends at school. Then he had to meet his group in the library to look for a nice restaurant for lunch. He asked a police officer the way from school to the library but he doesn't know the way to the restaurant either. Can you help him?

1. First complete the dialogue with the directions that the police officer gave to James.

James: Excuse me. Can you tell me the way to the library?

Police officer: It is not far from here. You can go on foot. It is _____ the Town Hall. Go _____ the street, take the first _____ on the left and then turn _____. The building at the corner is _____. Next to it there's the _____ and the library is _____ the cinema.

James: Thank you very much.

Police officer: You're welcome.

2. How can James get from Library to the restaurant? Find the way and then write the directions.

When you leave the library,
